

ref. MB04-01n

col. vintage

ref. MB04-02c

col. heliotrope

ref. MB04-03n

col. mauve

ref. MB04-04n

col. ming

ref. MB04-05n

col. hazel

ref. MB04-06n

col. blueberry

A delicate floral pattern derived from Japanese tea paper screens. Blossom features drifting flower petals suspended in midair with beautiful negative space and random individual blooms.

Application: feature walls in bedrooms, living rooms, dining rooms, entry halls and dressing rooms.

Ground Options:

Nacre: Paper substrate with hand-brushed metallic glaze striation.

Cartridge Paper: Matte white archival paper with subtle texture.

Ground Options

Nacre: paper substrate with hand-brushed metallic glaze striation.

Substrate width: 1050mm (42")

Usable width: 915mm (36")

Faux Linen: Matte embossed vinyl canvas with linen texture (commercial/hospitality grade).

Substrate width: 1300 mm (51")

Usable width: 1200mm (47")

Cartridge Paper: Matte white archival paper with subtle texture.

Substrate width: 1050mm (42")

Usable width: 915mm (36")

Ordering Guide

Supplied as panels on a roll. Client must specify panel height and number of panels required.

Customising color

The background color of an existing colorway can be changed. There will be fee for this, which will include sampling.

To create an entirely new custom color, there will be a flat fee charge, which will include sampling.

For all pricing, please contact our Sales team.

Lead-times

Custom Color Sample: 1-2 weeks

General Production: All orders are made on request, we do not store any items. Approx lead time 5-6 weeks

Note: All times noted above are from receipt of deposit payment and are subject to change, depending on order quantity and production schedule.